Ms. Canann indicates that she will submit an amendment to bring claim 116 into claim 1. The support for claims 1 and 116 comes from pages 6, 18, 23-25, and 31-33 of the specification. Since page 32, first paragraph of the specification teaches to incorporate dP or 8-oxo-dG into nucleic acid probes, both Examiners Jones and Lu agree that the only logical position to incorporate degenerate nucleotides is the variable position and therefore is not new matter. Ms. Canann will file the proposed amendment with supporting arguments which appears to place the application into condition for allowance.
